PRESS REVIEW:

- Selected in Guide Hachette 2016 – France – 2012 vintage
- Guide Gilbert & Gaillard 2015 – French Wine Guide – Note 90/100 (2015 vintage)
- TASTED
87 points/ Very Good, Strong Recommendation.
Tasting notes: Cherry, violets and mineral soil balance delicately on the nose. Smooth and dark berried fruit is silken in texture with undernotes of minerals and moss. Elegant with well-balanced acidity and ripe tannins, this wine is easy to enjoy.
(vintage 2011)
- Le Figaro – Avis Vin – Bernard Burtschy (France) – Spring 2012
“Un vin à la fois structure et épicé avec du veloté, mais aussi de la fraîcheur, assez tannique, mais il se fera grace à sa matière”.
(vintage 2009)
- Wine Enthusiast (USA) – March 2011 – Buying Guide Rating : 88
(vintage 2008)
- Guide Gilbert & Gaillard – French Wine Guide – Note 89/100
“Deep red. Enticing nose of fresh red fruits and very subtle oak notes. On the palate, fine-grained, silky substance, lovely freshness. A well balanced, lingering Haut-Médoc deploying a touch of finesse.
(vintage 2008)
- Wine Enthusiast (USA) – March 2009 – Buying Guide Rating : 89
(vintage 2007)
- Robert Parker’s Wine Guide - 2004
”I have been impressed with the soft, fruity, easy to like, and easy to drink wines of Château Magnol, a property owned by the huge firm of Barton & Guestier... The wine is extremely well made in a modern, commercial style, and there is no doubting its seductive, forward charms...”
- Wine Enthusiast (USA) – November 15, 2002
86 Points - Value 2002 “This is a blend of 50% Merlot and 50% Cabernet Sauvignon. The two varieties balance the bouquet which features earth from the Merlot and licorice from the Cabernet. The brambly wood flavors accented by pinecones and blackberries end in a dry, lean finish.” - (1999 vintage)
- WineToday.com (USA) – December 13, 2000
« 3 Stars: General qualities: medium oak, medium bodied, tannic. Colors: deep purple. Aromas: black cherry, earthy, vanilla. Flavors: boysenberry, tobacco. » - (1995 vintage)
- Alexandria Journal (USA) – November 12, 1999
« Nicely developed bouquet of oak and vanilla, spice and concentrated cassis-black cherry... Very good-minus. » - (1995 vintage)
- Decanter (United Kingdom) – November 1999
« Blind panel tasting: Highly recommended: Vegetal aromas. Stewed redfruit flavours; tannins need time. »
(1996 vintage)
- Le Point (France) – September 10, 1999
« Fruité, cerise fraîche, rond, tendre souple en première séquence, élégant, finale resserrée. » - (1996 vintage)
